Antioch residents waded through flood of 1960

(Following is the second in a series of historical features taken from the pages of the Antioch News some years back).

Having experienced the blizzard of 1979, Antioch residents are among those looking to the coming winter with a wary eye.

It may be some comfort to know that, while last winter was rough, so was the winter of 1960, when eight Antioch area residents living along the Fox River were evacuated from their homes during a flood.

Nine and one-half inches of snow fell during the January storm and ice on the river "thick enough to support people... was believed to be responsible for the high water," the News reported.

THE RIVER ROSE "to what old timers said was its highest level in 25 years," according to the article.

"Some of these people had to be taken out in rowboats, while some waded through the water in hip boots. Two children in one family were carried 'piggy-back' through the water so they could attend school.

With all the comotion, a shortage of fuel oil added to the residents' distress. While on a delivery, one fuel truck "slid off the road due to the ice."

Through rain, sleet, snow and dark of night, the mail will go through and during the flood it was all but completely stopped.

"EVEN THE MAILMAN, at the peak of high water, decided it was too risky to deliver mail to some points in the area, so left it at the Jerome Medal home near the edge of the high water level," the paper noted.

Even though the river was about five feet above its normal water level and farm land across the river "was flooded as far as the eye could see," Antioch residents still made it to the Sequoit basketball game.

"The storm... failed to keep down the size of the crowd that saw Antioch high defeat Warren high 77-65 at ATHS (Antioch Township High School)."

The Charles Hahn family was one of those that spent a week away from their home due to the flooding. "A man had to cut away ice

Holiday store hours announced

Christmas shopping hours have been announced by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry.

Store hours are Mondays through Fridays from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.; Saturdays, regular store hours and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sundays.

The Chamber Retail Committee's Let's Talk Turkey holiday promotion has been a big success, reported LoAl Clark, committee chairman.

Many stores have run out of entry blanks for the promotion for the second week in a row.

Shoppers may enter at participating Antioch merchants as often as they wish until the Dec. 21 deadline.

One turkey each will be given away by the merchants. Winners will be announced Dec. 22.

Con man tries to swindle elderly Antioch resident

A man claiming to be a bank employee attempted to con a 68-year-old Antioch woman into withdrawing a large part of her money from her savings account.

The woman was contacted by the man via a phone call in her home Dec. 4. He claimed to be an auditor from the State Bank of Antioch and told her that due to an internal bank problem, she should withdraw a large amount from her account, said Lt. Thomas Fisher of the Antioch Police Dept.

The man knew her account number and balance.

FOLLOWING THAT CALL, another man phoned saying he was the captain of the police department and that the bank had called him concerning its situation. She was told that it would be wise to follow the man's instructions.

The second caller also told her not to speak with anyone and that she should meet both the auditor and him in the bank parking lot within half an hour with the money so they could hold it for safe keeping.

"This woman couldn't believe anyone would fall for such a scheme and called the bank immediately," Fisher said. "They in turn called us and together we tried to meet the demands of the con man."

The Antioch Police Dept. was at the bank within 40 minutes, but saw "nothing suspicious," he noted.

"ELDERLY WOMEN ARE the easiest prey for a con man," according to Fisher. "Many times they are widows and that age group's general distrust of the banking system makes it easier for someone to convince them they should give up their money."

State Bank of Antioch Security Officer Tony Starcevic said a bank security officer should be notified immediately if a person is ever contacted in this way.

"Con men are very smooth operators,"

Industrial Committee to meet

The Industrial Recognition Committee of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry will have a meeting at noon, Dec. 12, at the Country House.

"Plans, ideas and information are on the agenda," said Dixie Sparks, Chamber executive secretary.

Committee Chairman Bob Taubitz, of Regal China, looks forward to "all of you in industry attending."

The Chamber is now making plans for its annual installation and dinner dance in January 1980.

"We are looking forward to a huge attendance and promise it will be short on speeches, long on fun," Sparks said. More information will be provided later, she added.

To seek funding

The Antioch Grade School Board voted to make application for funds for the purchase of materials for gifted students.

"There is research evidence which suggests that the gifted can be better served by having a curriculum which is more challenging and goes beyond the scope of what is normally provided for them in the traditional classroom," wrote Grade School Supt. Donald E. Skidmore in his notes for the board meeting.

"Unfortunately, there are few outside sources of funds available to support gifted programs," he continued. "At best we can apply for and claim about $3 per pupil annually."

"Currently, we have no defined program for serving our gifted children below the seventh grade," he reported. "That is not to say, however, that we are not serving them."

Talented students are served in the regular classes through advanced reading and math groups, he explained.

Freshmen matmen win with comeback

The Antioch Freshmen wrestlers showed a great deal of heart while in the process of pulling out a storybook win over conference opponents, Grayslake High School.

After spotting the Rams 12 points with forfeits at the two lightest weights and giving up 11 more in two early losses, the Sequoits started their comeback already losing 23-0.

Two quick pins by 119 pound Kevin Haarstad and 126 pound John Oelkers cut the deficit to 23-12.

At 138 pounds George Bessette pinned his opponent and 145 pounds Tibor Junk received a forfeit making the score 29-24. John Browder tied his 167 pound opponent and 185 pound Martin Flores received a forfeit to bring the score to 37-22.

Heavyweight Bill Barbosa stepped on the mat and sealed the Sequoits exciting victory by pinning his opponent in the first period, making the score Antioch 38, Grayslake 37.

Other fine performances were turned in by John Haley - 105 pounds; Kirk Vogt - 112 pounds; Ron Neuman - 132 pounds and Lance Feldman - 155 pounds.

Jaycees are pleased with breakfast results

The Antioch Jaycee Pancake Breakfast with Santa was as much fun this year as last year, a spokesman said. Everyone enjoyed it — from the kids who met Miss Antioch and Santa to the Jaycees in the kitchen cooking, and the mothers who didn't have to cook.

Kevin Lyons, chairman, said that some of the Jaycees' wives, after tasting the pancakes and sausage, were looking forward to breakfast in bed from now on. Lyons also told us of the help he and the Jaycees received.

He said, "I want to thank the Jaycettes who helped us out with womanpower. And, of course, St. Peter's Church. We couldn't have held this project without their generous cooperation, especially from Mrs. Katherine Wells."

While helping on the project, the Jaycettes sold many tickets for their fund raiser. They have only a few tickets left. Call Bonnie Bruski at 395-5047 for more information.

The Jaycees and Jaycettes are young people's groups dedicated to personal development through community service.

For more information about the Jaycees call Ray

For more information about the Jaycettes, call Sue Dubs, president, at 587-6666 or Mary Schaub, membership chairman, at 395-8796.

To file suit concerning gas pipe

A suit is now being filed against the architect and general contractor of the Antioch Upper Grade School for installation of a gas line not in accordance with agreed to specifications.

The gas pipe, which was installed unvented in the ceiling rather than on the floor, "appears to be in violation of the Life Safety Code," said Grade School Supt. Donald Skidmore.

"The price to correct the gas problem is approximately $15,000..." according to minutes from the Nov. 20 Grade School Board meeting.

Residents waded

in order for the family to return," the News stated.

THAT WINTER TURNED into a spring with even more flooding problems for Antioch.

By April, when "water levels in the lakes near the village were at the highest in the memory of local residents, possibly as many as one hundred people had to evacuate their homes for a day or more and countless more moved furniture, clothing, and other household goods to higher places in their homes."

On April 3, "thousands of people poured out into the lakes region to view the flooded areas, causing route 173 to look much like a city street at times," according to the News.

POINTS OF INTEREST to the on-lookers were a boat house-restaurant that was under water "to a depth of many feet" and a bridge crossing the channel from Channel Lake into Lake Marie where "several boat houses were threatened if not inundated."

Channel Lake traffic was detoured through Wilmot and Trevor if drivers "didn't wish to negotiate the flooded road."

Antioch residents tried to look on the bright side of things, keeping their chins up and their feet out of the water.

According to Channel Lake Columnist Pearl Kapell, a few residents had "taken up to putting signs in front of their homes."

"IN FRONT OF the Martin Stankus home, a neatly-lettered sign nailed to a tree announces, "Wanted — skin diving suit so we can pull the plug from under" the Pistrobohachkimahoco Subdivision.

"The name of the subdivision, by the way, is composed of the first two letters from the last name of every resident in the flooded area," the columnist wrote.

"A couple of doors down, a sign in front of the Borgart home announces simply, "Goon Lake."

As the flood waters began to recede, residents realized the big clean-up job ahead. However, the News reported, "some of the school children were greatly disappointed to see things return to normal."

"MR. AND MRS. Camerer, who live on Wilmot Rd., have been bringing the children north of the bridge to school every day in a tractor-drawn hay wagon. The children were delighted with their unusual conveyance and thoroughly enjoyed the thrill of riding through the water daily," Mrs. Kapell wrote.

As the weather got back to normal, Antioch got back on its feet with a "clean up, paint up, fix up week" sponsored by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry and local business men.

Tom Ward joins Century 21

Century 21 Michael Warren of Antioch has just announced the association of Thomas Ward as an associate broker.

Although Ward was born and raised in Chicago, he has resided in the Antioch area since his honorable discharge from the military.

Ward is married and he and his wife, Cathy, have a daughter.

"I feel the real estate business is the most rewarding work I've ever been associated with. Being able to help home buyers make the largest financial decision in their lifetime is a real privilege," Ward said.

Con men try swindling

Fisher said. "If there is ever any questions regarding a possible scheme, people should not hesitate to phone the bank or the police."

POSSIBLE VICTIMS SHOULD be aware that no bank officer would request that a customer withdraw money and that the bank would never need the cooperation of a customer to assist in an arrest, Starcevic said.

Processing steps within the bank would "lead to the arrest of an embezzler," he added.

Thirdly, bank auditors would never contact a customer personally, according to Starcevic. They communicate by sending letters asking a customer to contact the auditor.

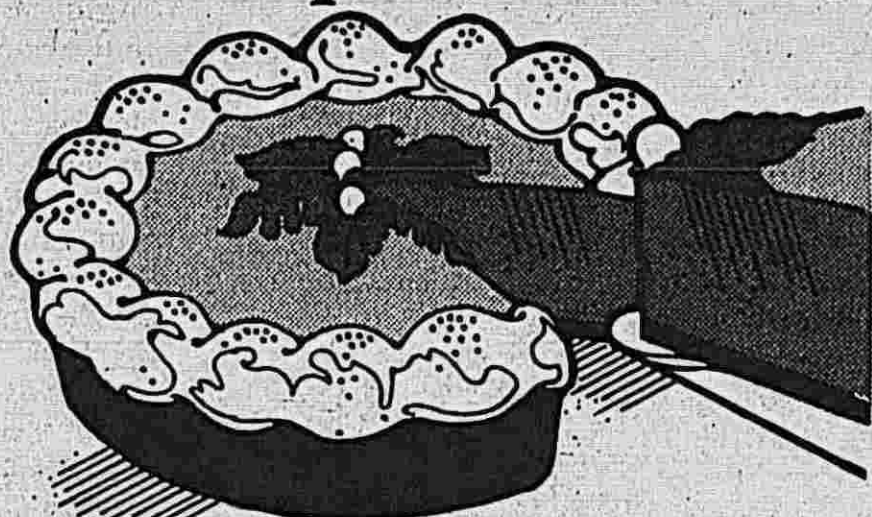

Chances are that an unusually large withdrawal will be questioned by the teller, he added.

THE BANK ADVISES elderly customers receiving social security to have the checks deposited directly into their accounts. "That is one less bit of information a con man won't know of," Starcevic added.

Through watching the persons mail, looking through their trash for discarded bank statements or looking over their shoulder at the bank, a person could find out the individual's account numbers and balances, Fisher said.

"The con man may work the obituaries knowing that within 30 days of death there is usually an insurance settlement made," Fisher reported.

Women of Moose hold enrollment

by ANITA WISNIEWSKI

Senior Regent Mary welcomed 35 members to the Dec. 6 meeting. It was Social Service Chapter Night. An enrollment of one new member, Karen L. Duncan, sponsored by Anita Wisniewski was held in honor of Chairman Lorraine Deutsch.

Chairman Lorraine was escorted to the Senior Regent's station where she introduced the members of her committee. She then presented two checks, one for handcraft at Mooseheart and the other for the Women of the Moose Scholarship Fund.

Senior Regent Mary thanked all the co-workers who helped to make our recent chapter Christmas Bazaar a success. Civics Affairs Chairman Judy Page announced that she will be working with the loyal order toward collecting non-perishable food items to be distributed to the needy on Saturday, Dec. 22. Any donation may be left in the box in the club room.

Star Recorder Chairman Jerri Polson announced that the committee members have tickets available for the giant Christmas stocking displayed in the club room. The chapter will be sending a Christmas gift to our Moosehaven resident, Harriet Grewe. Anyone wishing to send her a special greeting, her address is: Mrs. Harriet Grewe, Katherine Smith Hall - Moosehaven, Orange Park, Fla., 22073.

Co-workers, do not forget the chapter Christmas party Thursday, Dec. 13. Cocktails will be served at 6:30 and ham dinner at 7 p.m. Co-workers are asked to bring side dishes and the officers will provide dessert. A $3 grab bag will be held for anyone wishing to participate.

After the meeting, the usual drawings were held: Share the Pot was won by Louise Stenberg, Moosetry Gift by Betty Dahlke. Lillian Hohmann's name was drawn for the attendance prize but she was not present. The next meeting will be on Thursday, Dec. 20, and it will be street length dress.

Lillie Petty to review

The Antioch Women's Club held its Christmas party Dec. 3 at the Harbor Ridge Country Club.

The room was beautiful with Christmas decorations and fresh pointsettias on all the tables, a spokesman said. A lovely potluck luncheon was enjoyed by all, she said.

The singing of Christmas carols got everyone in the spirit of the season. The surprise visit by Santa was cheered by all, she reported. Santa gave out all the exchange gifts.

The next meeting will be Jan. 21. The program is a book review by Lillie Petty.

Sequoits topple over Grayslake's good play

The Antioch Sequoits basketball team took a loss to Grayslake 52-49 with a "hard time getting started in the game."

Combined with Grayslake's defense taking the upper hand in the first half, the Sequoits were up against exceptional play by Grayslake throughout the game.

Grayslake took about a seven point lead in the first half, shooting "well over 60 percent," said Antioch Head Coach Roger Andrews.

DURING THE SECOND half, Antioch "adjusted well defensively," he added.

John Ploss was credited for doing "a very commendable job helping defensively" as the game narrowed to a one point difference at the end of the third quarter.

"The first four minutes of the fourth quarter really proved to be the downfall" for the Sequoits, the coach stated. With five opportunities to take the lead and a two shot foul on a sixth chance, the game was decidedly in Grayslake's favor.

WITH TWO SECONDS to go, Ron Nauman scored a bucket and the Sequoits called a time out with the score at 49-51.

With Grayslake's number of experienced players, Antioch's "inability to be quite ready to play really put us in a hole," Andrews said.

"We were kind of dead and flat due to the fact we didn't move around very much," he added, "which was evident in a number of fouls."

THE TEAM'S HIGH scorer was Nauman with 14 followed by Kurt Selak with

12. Pete Weber was credited for giving "stability and strength outside."

The Sequoits will be playing three games in five days. On Friday, Dec. 14 they will play Round Lake; on Saturday, Dec. 15, North Chicago and Tuesday, Dec. 18, Wauconda.

ALL GAMES WILL begin at 8 p.m.

The team will play at Round Lake Friday and "hopefully our height will prevail," Andrews said.

The "tenacious man to man defense" of North Chicago, coupled with the team's "many very capable and skilled people" mean Antioch will "have to be on top of the game," he added.

Andrews expects Wauconda's "lack of experience" and height to be a factor in Tuesday's game.

Sequoit wrestlers pin Grayslake team

The Antioch Varsity Sequoits out-wrestled the Grayslake Rams 42-15 on the home mats Dec. 7 and placed fourth in the Buffalo Grove team tournament Saturday.

Friday the Sequoits won their first conference test of the year with pins by Dave Unrein, 112 pounds, Jon Gibson, 126, Rob Crowell, 132, Ted Bessette, 185, and Scott Buxton, Heavyweight.

Recording wins on points were Tad DeRousse, 98, Jeff Canella, 139 and Chuck Bogaerts, 155.

"Actually, we were in every match but one," stated head coach Ted DeRousse. John Wohlfiel at 119, Mitch Lasco at 145, and Hal Fox all lost very close decisions.

Saturday the Sequoits moved on to "top" competition in the Buffalo Grove team tournament Dec. 8.

The Sequoits faced Glenbrook South in the first round and defeated the Titans 36-18.

In the semi-finals the competition was state power East Leyden. The Young Sequoits lost to the experienced Eagles 41-9.

Recording wins for Antioch were Tad DeRousse, 98, Jon Gibson, 126, and Ted Bessette, 185. East Leyden went on to easily win the tournament and Antioch wrestled another power, H.

L. Richards High School. The third place match went down to the heavyweight battle with Richard's all-state tackle John Alekna pinning Scott Buxton to clinch the meet for Richards 36-27.

Sequoit bowlers roll to victories

The ACHS Girls Interscholastics Bowling for the 1979-80 season will surprisingly only consist of nine girls. In previous years, 25-28 girls tried out for bowling. For some unknown reason, the only girls who tried out this year are the upperclassmen who are "second, third and fourth year veterans (members)."

Because of the shortage of bowlers, ACHS will only have two teams: A varsity and C jr. varsity. The others schools will have to set aside their B Freshman, sophomore and D teams when competing against ACHS.

In actuality, ACHS has one large A squad because the averages of the bowlers are close in range. Thus, throughout this season it is expected that the A and C teams will consist of different bowlers. Hopefully, this will be a "plus" in Antioch's favor along with the fact that these girls are experienced in bowling competition, a spokesman said.

Not having B and D teams does not necessarily hurt Antioch's chances for winning the conference tournament because only the Varsity A team's scores are counted for the Northwest Suburban Conference Standing. Yet, Antioch is hurting in regards to lacking new, "fresh" bowlers to train for the future, according to the spokesman.

Antioch's first match was on Dec. 3 with Warren High School. Although the A Varsity "Sequoits" (Cindy Toole, Sheri Weber, Lori Meyer and Jill Levoe) bowled well, they were strongly defeated 4 to 0 by the powerful Warren girls. The Sequoits' pin total (three games) was 1770 compared to Warren's 1971. Antioch's big loss to Warren proved to the girls that they will have to greatly improve their averages in the next month before facing Warren again and before those tournament dates.

Warren's C team is somewhat weak as the Sequoits defeated them 3 to 1, she added. The Sequoit C bowlers were Donna Schmehl, Lisa Holmes, Vicky Seymour and Diane Appelhans.

Antioch's top bowlers for that match were Jill Levoe, who rolled a 538 series, averaging 179, and Diane Appelhans with a 452 series, 150 average.

On Dec. 5, the Sequoits A and C squads gained two easy 4-0 victories over Wauconda. The A team bowlers (Janie Jorgensen, Cindy Toole, Sherry Weber and Jill Levoe) accumulated a 1829 3-game pin total against Wauconda's 1519.

The ACHS C team bowlers (Lori Meyer, Lisa Holmes, Donna Schmehl and Diane Appelhans) achieved a 1651 total to Wauconda's 1274.

Top bowlers for this ACHS-Wauconda match were: Jill Levoe (491 series/163 average), Janie Jorgensen (473 series/157 average), Cindy Toole (462 series/154 average) and Lori Meyer (446 series/148 average).

Dec. 6 found Antioch A team to be weak but not weak enough to lose the match. The Sequoits A squad defeated Grayslake 3-1 with ACHS's pin total of 1660 edging the 1620 of Grayslake. On the other hand, Antioch C team found themselves being strong bowlers when they easily crushed GCHS with a 4-0 victory, having obtained a 1665 total over the 1130 total of Grayslake. Jill Levoe, with her 466 series, and Lisa Holmes, with a 461 series, were the top ACHS bowlers in that competition.

As of Dec. 10th, ACHS A Team Record is two wins and one loss while ACHS C Team Record is three wins and 0 losses.

The first girl to roll a 200 game this season is Jill Levoe (201), who is also the one who bowled the highest 3-game series thus far with her 543 (181 average). Janie Jorgensen follows Jill with a 520 high series (173 average).

What are the forecasts for this year? There is only one. That Warren is the toughest team to beat and that ACHS and Grant are, once again, close behind, she added.

Antioch's next match games will be on December 12 with Stevenson and Dec. 13 with Woodstock.

Freshmen netters attack Grayslake

Antioch's Freshman basketball teams beat Grayslake last Saturday. The A team squeezed out a 41-39 victory and the B team streaked away to a 44-28 win.

In the A game, Tom Anderson led the team in scoring with 12 points and in rebounds with 10. He was also credited with eight recoveries.

Chris Becker added 11 points and six rebounds and Tom Hartokolis contributed 10 points and nine rebounds.

As a team, Antioch totally dominated the boards 37 to 17. The freshman are now 2-0 in Conference play.

In the B game, the young Sequoits ran off 24 points in the fourth quarter to win easily.

John Andre led in scoring with 11 points and Steve Haase, Dave Schomaker and Jeff Kempher each added six points. John Silianoff was credited with several steals to set up scoring plays.

The B team is now 1-1 in conference play.

Antioch entertains Round Lake Saturday at 9 a.m. and then hosts an eight-team tournament. Teams invited include Grayslake, Jacobs, Dundee, Zion-Benton, North Chicago, Highland Park and Buffalo Grove. Antioch plays Zion at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 17.

Seniors should file now for tax exemptions

Antioch senior citizens are among those whom the Catholic Charities Information and Referral Center are urging to file for the 1978 Tax Relief for Senior Citizens and Disabled Persons, before the deadline, Dec. 31.

Most eligible persons have probably filed already, Bernice McNeela, project director for the center, advised. The application forms for the 1978 grant, as well as assistance in completing the forms, are available at the two Information and Referral Centers, 4 S. Genesee St., Room 214, Waukegan, phone 623-6700.

We already have enough coal lined up to last until 2020.

Nearly a billion tons of it. Enough to provide electricity until well into the next century, based on our projected fuel mix. We own much of it, waiting to mine it when we need it.

And we will need it. Because by the end of this century, the demand for electricity is expected to triple. Our coal will help meet that demand.

But it's also doing something else very important. It's helping conserve scarce fuels: oil and natural gas.

Sophs even slate

Antioch's sophomore basketball team evened its conference record at 1-1 Friday with a 63-56 victory over the host Grayslake Rams.

A pressing defense and aggressive rebounding put the Sequoits ahead early and the Antioch sophomores dominated the game for three periods of play. Antioch enjoyed a 54-34 lead after three quarters. A flurry of fourth-period turnovers allowed the Rams to get close, but never close enough.

The Sequoits were "hungrier," according to Coach Zeman, after last week's last-second loss to Grant.

Gene Zannini led the Sequoits in scoring Friday with 15 points, followed by Dennis Cardiff with 10. Zannini and Gordy Nasenbeny helped the sophomores control the boards with eight and six rebounds, respectively.

The Sequoits play host to Round Lake Dec. 14. Then the sophomores travel to Zion Saturday morning for a tournament game against Waukegan West.

Auxiliary contributes to vet fund

A quest for gems of service, An Adventure in Caring is the theme selected by State Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation Chairman, Mrs. Mary Gleason.

Mrs. Dorothy Horan of the Antioch unit stresses this theme will be carried out on the local level. The VA&R is the oldest and main program for which our organization was founded.

On the State level, Illinois was responsible for over $500,000. The Antioch unit was responsible for contributions amounting to $100, and covered all phases of the VA&R program.

The Christmas season is indeed an adventure in caring for others. Mrs. Dorothy Horan, Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation Chairman of the Antioch Unit announces the annual Christmas Gift Shops will be held on Dec. 15 at Downey Hospital.

She urges volunteers to contact her for this worthwhile service of cheer.

Veterans who are able to leave their beds come to the gift shop set up at the Hospital. They are assisted by American Legion Auxiliary Volunteers with the selection of gifts for their families. These gifts are then wrapped and mailed to the families of the veteran.

Baha'is to meet in Antioch home

The Baha'is of Northeastern Illinois will meet in a workshop from 2 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Ray Fechtner, Lake Catherine, Antioch.

The workshop is sponsored by the three assistants to the auxiliary board member, Mr. Stephen Ader for the states Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota.

The function of the Baha'i Auxiliary Board is propagation and protection of the Baha'i Faith. Assistants for northeastern Illinois are Mrs. Martha Patrick and Douglas Ruhe from Wilmette, and Mrs. Patricia Jackson from Deerfield.

Representatives from the following Baha'i Communities are expected: Antioch and Libertyville Townships; Lindenhurst; Round Lake areas; Gages Lake; Grayslake; Waukegan; North Chicago; Zion; Lake Zurich; Highland Park; Highwood; Deerfield and Mundelein.

Discussions at the workshop will center on the present persecution of the Baha'is in Iran and the demolition of Baha'i Holy Places in Iran; on the individual growth of each Baha'i and how Baha'is from these many areas can work together and increase inter-community activities.

Since the Baha'is in the United States have been asked by their National Spiritual Assembly to say prayers for the safety and release of the American hostages in Iran, a devotional period will be held for this specific purpose at this meeting.

A potluck supper will follow the meeting.

Savings and Loan Assn. to begin groundbreaking

Antioch Savings and Loan Assn. has announced that construction will soon begin on the association's new Harbor Ridge facility located at the southwest corner of Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Rd., two miles south of its Antioch Office.

Antioch Savings feels it will more conveniently serve its customers living south of Antioch in the surrounding Fox Lake and Lake Villa areas.

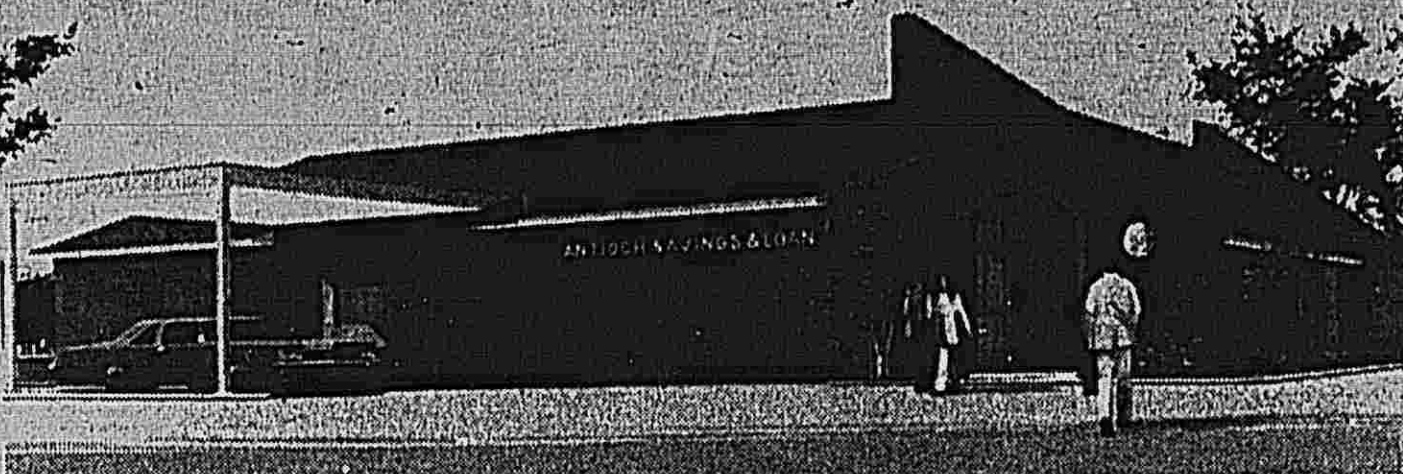

Thomas Kelly, president of the association, stresses that "This is a full service facility and not just a satellite office. Fully computerized data communications and a drive-up facility will provide customers with fast efficient service. Additionally, ample parking will be provided for customers needing to transact business indoors."

"Also, for the first time Antioch Savings and Loan will be able to offer safe deposit boxes on the ground floor for its customers," Kelly said.

He also said that this new facility is just the beginning of the association's planned branching and that nearby locations are being considered for additional offices.

The Association has scheduled the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Harbor Ridge facility for Monday, Dec. 17.

No boat fishing possible

Commercial fishing without a boat? It's possible this winter on the Fox-Chain O'Lakes in Lake County.

The Illinois Dept. of Conservation is accepting applications from commercial fishermen who can take carp through the ice at the Chain.

Despite an abundant carp population and rising fish prices, commercial fishing in the Chain has been conducted on a very limited basis, said Dept. of Conservation Regional Fisheries Supervisor Gary Erickson.

What has stymied commercial fishing of the Chain in the past has been the combination of heavy boat traffic and proliferation of stumps and other obstructions in shallow water, Erickson said.

To avoid these problems, he has proposed seining fish through the ice, a method that has been very successful at reservoirs in central and southern Illinois in past years.

Carp have an adverse impact on water quality and the spawning success of more desirable sport species because of their habit of keeping the bottom sediments stirred up.

Any commercial fisherman interested in harvesting carp from the Chain O' Lakes must have at least 1,000 feet of seine or 500 feet of trammel net to qualify for an Illinois commercial fishing license, Erickson said.
